MAIN STREET, WAYNESBURG, PA. 1898-99

THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL FOR 1898 DAILY AND WEEKLY.

A PAPER FOR THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY AND HOUSEHOLD.

PRESIDENTIAL YEAR—NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.

It is unnecessary to occupy time or space in setting forth the character of the "Commercial".

Its standing as the leading newspaper in Pennsylvania—although the most recently established of the first class papers of the country—is already assured.

At no time an experiment, it has steadily grown in circulation, strength and patronage, until it has become recognized as the largest paper of Ohio, West Virginia and even beyond their borders.

It has a recognized standing in the financial world, and is read by the most intelligent of all classes, among whom it exerts an influence second to no other in the country.

Its editorial policy is one of independence and impartiality, and it is not influenced by party spirit or by any other consideration.

It is a paper of broad scope, and its editorial policy is one of independence and impartiality, and it is not influenced by party spirit or by any other consideration.

JAS. P. LAZEAR, Wm. L. LAZEAR, WHOLESALE GROCERIES AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

No. 17 EXCHANGE PLACE, BALTIMORE.

PUBLIC NOTICE

As the firm of HUGHES & LUCAS is dissolved by mutual consent, the Commission business will be carried on at the old stand in good order, and on the most reasonable terms, in the name and style of L. HUGHES & CO., senior partner. They flatter themselves by having the House and the best location for the place for that business, that they will receive a liberal share of the patronage.

They will also keep a good supply of GROCERIES on hand to accommodate all who may favor them with a call. L. HUGHES & CO., 41-42-43-44-45-46-47-48-49-50-51-52-53-54-55-56-57-58-59-60-61-62-63-64-65-66-67-68-69-70-71-72-73-74-75-76-77-78-79-80-81-82-83-84-85-86-87-88-89-90-91-92-93-94-95-96-97-98-99-100

THE WONDER OF THE AGE! TIME, MONEY AND LABOR SAVED!

THE LATEST & BEST CHURN!

One of the latest Patents, issued on the 11th day of September, 1896, Wm. H. McCordison, of Washington, Iowa, will be on exhibition in a few days at JOHN MUNNELL'S, in Waynesburg, Pa. This CHURN must supersede anything of the kind heretofore produced. The simplicity of its construction, and its two-fold or reversed motion, that produces better results than any other, and that requires less time to churn, are its chief qualities. It saves time and space, and produces as much butter as any other, and is the only one that will churn in any season, and in any place. It is the only one that will churn in any season, and in any place. It is the only one that will churn in any season, and in any place.

MORRIS, ULLMAN & CO., AGENTS

Miscellaneous.

Long Trails. There is a society of gentlemen in this town as well as elsewhere, whose bounden duty it is to tread on the trails of ladies dresses, now so much affected by the ultra fashionable. Not a day but some member of the society enforces its rules on Main street.

We can assure the sufferers that this is done in concert, and with a view to the abolition of the fashion. The Boston Post, speculating on the long skirt question, holds that where a gentleman steps on that superficial extremity of a lady's dress which gathers up odorous richness from the flag stones and pavement, neither should apologize, because the lady has an undoubted right to cover an unlimited amount of space with her straggling dry goods, and the gentlemen has an inalienable right to step in that space, covered or uncovered. It thinks, however, that the action is more damaging to the lady's garments than to the gentleman's boots.

A TOUCHING INCIDENT.—At a second class hotel in Frankfort, Ky., a few days since, a little girl entered the bar-room, and in a pitiful tone told the barkeeper that her mother sent her to get eight cents.

"Eight cents?" said the barkeeper. "Yes, sir."

"What does your mother want with eight cents? I don't owe her any money."

"Well," said the child, "father spends all his money here for rum, and we have no bread to-day. Mother wants to buy a loaf of bread."

A leader suggested to the barkeeper to kick her out.

"No," said the barkeeper; "I'll give her mother the money, and if her father comes back here again I'll kick him out."

Humanity owes that barkeeper a vote of thanks.

BECKER ON KISSING.—H. W. B. thus speaks of his hero and heroine in Norwood: "It was evening twilight. They sat alone in the porch. A few late blossoms of the Chinese honeysuckle shed down a trace of perfume through the air. There were no loquaciousing, no katydids, nor gurgling crickets, and yet some soft song I certainly heard! Not birds surely! I think it must have been the plash of one honeysuckle against another. Yet there is no wind to move them! I hear it again! Listen! It is like the falling of a drop of dew into the silver lake from some birchen leaf! No, that is rude. It is as if two dreams floating in the night had clashed; or like the joining of two prayers of love on their way upward; or—may it, was a kiss!—pure, sacred, holy! It is the soul's symbol, when words fail it. It is the heart's sigh, or interjection, when it has a feeling for which there is no expression!"

Marriage of Whites and Blacks. The Independent thinks, and very justly, that it is a very rare circumstance that a black person and a white wish to marry each other. But if any two such persons do wish to marry, it is impertinent and oppressive for other people, and particularly for legislators, to interfere. But it seems that the Alabama Convention not only proposes to prevent the making of such marriages in the future, but to annul all such marriages made in the past. This is an oversight on the part of that convention; for the number of white and blacks who ought to be married far greater than the number who are so married. The true legislation for Alabama is the solemnization, not the nullification, of such marriages.

It is old times, when malefactors were broken on the wheel, it was usual for the executioner to put the victim out of misery by the coup de grace, that is, a knock on the head, that suddenly finished his earthly career. The Ohio Democracy on the 13th inst., did just that thing for the self-elected martyr, Vallandigham, by nominating Judge Thurman, by a vote of 51 to 24.—Tribune.

The Cost of Living.—On the question of how large a sum may be saved from a small salary, a lady says in an exchange: "My income is $8.00 per week. Which I spend in the following manner: Board and washing, $4.25; church contributions, 25 cents; clothes $1.50. Total $6.50. The balance $1.50, I deposit in the bank." A young man gives his experience thus: "My income is $2.00 a week. My average expenses for board and room, $6.50; clothing, $5.00; billiards, $2.50; (I play a poor game); drinks, $1.50; horse hire, $3.00; literary—True Flag and Police Gazette, 10 cents; washing, 25 cents; church contributions 5 cents; Total, $24. For the balance I draw on the old man. My washing bill last year was $48, but as my necessary expenses were so high, I was not able to pay only $13 of it, which gives the average of 25 cents a week. I would like to marry, but don't see how I can. The ladies are so extravagant and have so many habits, that I can't support a wife."

A Woman Turned Man. The La Crosse Democrat tells a wonderful yarn, for the truth of which the editor vouches with Manchester-like gravity. A Miss Ellen Barnham, he says, married one Powell, a Chicago newspaper man, in 1862, lived with him two years and had one child. Suddenly the lady's voice began to change, her peaches cheeks to sprout with whiskers, until, at the age of twenty-one, the attractive young woman was transformed into a good looking young man. A separation was the natural consequence, and, after a time, the quondam girl vindicated her new found sex by marrying one of her former pupils. As the Democrat puts the case, "the former girl is now a man, the former wife is now a husband, the former wife is now a father, the former young lady teacher of a young lady is now that young lady's husband."

POSTMASTER KELLY, of New York, has been ordered and detained a large number of letters containing money addressed to the proprietors of gift enterprises. District Attorney Courtney has the matter under advisement.
